SELLER # 1: Ron & Lisa Nicholas

SEKSPA Tag ID	Farm Tag ID	Ewe or Ram	Breed	Date of Birth Lamb (L) Yearling (Y)	Weight at Birth	Single (S) Twin (TW) or Triplet (TR)	Commercial (C) or Registered (R)	Sell Price

195	20	Ewe	Shetland	3/9/2023 (L)	NOT RECORDED	TW	C

NOTE ABOUT THE SELLER: Lisa is a licensed optician. She opened Southeast Eyecare P.S.C. in 2007 and makes and sell prescription eye ware and contact lenses. Lisa learned to spin in 1996 and loves making yarn. She spins the wool from her sheep by hand and then knits or crochets it into hats, mittens, fingerless gloves, stockings and more. Ron uses the hand spun wool yarn to weave shawls on a triangular peg loom. Ron and Lisa love to do reenactments of the 1760-1800 time period. Lisa also sells the fresh shorn fleeces from her sheep to anyone wanting to work with wool. Ron and Lisa were originally introduced to the Shetland breed in 2000. Rose Gate Farm was purchased and established in the fall of 2009. Ron and Lisa chose Shetland sheep for their hardiness and ease of maintaining. They choose to raise their sheep as organic as possible. The multipurpose uses of Shetlands and their size was also a factor in their decision. The ewes range from 60-90 lbs. full grown and rams 90-120 lbs. They lamb easily without help and have anywhere from 1-3 lambs at a time. Their wool is wonderful to the touch. Their meat is mild and not considered mutton until the age of 3. Shetlands can also be milked if one desires.

NOTE ABOUT THE SELLER: We are a small farm in Southeastern Kentucky that has taken great pride in raising quality registered and commercial Katahdin sheep. We are also part of the Katahdin improvement program. We aim for sheep that require little maintenance with fast growing lambs. We have brought in Huntroad Farm Genetics, for fast growth rate, mothering ability, and milk to raise multiples, as well as to combat parasite resistance and foot issues.
